

Cáceres

AND RELIGIONS

Different Cultures

Muslims

The Muslims occupied the upper part of the city. The old mosque stood in the place now occupied by the Church of San Mateo.

Old Jewish Quarter

The Jewish people settled in the southeast corner of the walled enclosure, where they built their synagogue. Today, it is the hermitage of San Antonio.

New Jewish Quarter

En 1478 los judíos construyen la Sinagoga de la Judería Nueva en lo que hoy es el Palacio de la Isla.

a mixture of styles and sensations

Christian churches

Standing out are the Co-Cathedral Church of Santa María, the church of San Mateo, and that of San Francisco Javier.

Cloistered Convents

The Convents of San Pablo, Santa Clara, and las Jerónimas continue to make sweets and crafts to fund their maintenance.

Near the walled enclosure

The church of Santiago has a reredos made by Alonso Berruguete. The Church of San Juan was built at the end of the 13th century.